Christmas Fun Arrives in Frodsham

The 'Think big' Frodsham Festival begins to warm up from 4pm on 25 November on Main Street with market stalls followed by the Christmas Lights Switch On at 6.30pm. This year's festival includes fireworks, a parade, fun fair, reindeer and street entertainment, not forgetting Santa in his grotto at the Station Car Park with the Gleave's Christmas food and drink festival.

Don't miss the festive Christmas market at Lady Heyes on Saturday 26 November. 'Enchanted Park' returns this year with The Snow Queen. Castle Park will be transformed, once again, into a winter walking wonderland with coloured lights.

unique gifts. Gleave's garden centre has a great choice of trees and festive decorations. Let yourself be tempted in Devonshire Bakery with a mouth watering selection of delicious festive cakes and pastries.

Need warming up? visit The Old Hall Hotel, on Main Street, with its log fires, relaxing sofas, serving its traditional food and fine dining.

Nothing says Christmas festive fun quite like a Pantomime and this year Frodsham Panto Group Presents - Robinson Crusoe & the Pirates begins on the 8th January.
